“ "The truth is that we are all connected. We are all part of one vast ocean of consciousness. When we realize this, we begin to see the world in a whole new light. We see that there is no separation between us and others. We see that we are all in this together.

This realization is the foundation of true compassion. When we see the unity of all beings, we cannot help but feel love and compassion for everyone. We see that we are all part of the same family, and we want to help others in any way we can.

Compassion is not just a feeling. It is a way of life. It is a way of interacting with the world that is based on love and understanding. Compassion is a powerful force that can change the world. It can help us to create a more just and peaceful world for ourselves and for future generations." "
